ELEMENTAL TRAILWORKS

Mountain bike trail design, construction and maintenance

CAPABILITIES STATEMENT

Elemental Trailworks LLC, Montgomery, Texas

WHO WE ARE

Elemental Trailworks is a trail building company led by Ryan Rodriguez, a professional mountain biker for 12 years, USA Downhill National Champion, six time Red Bull Rampage digger and winner of the 2025 Red Bull Rampage Digger's Award. We design and build trails with a rider's eye: sustainable grades, good drainage, and flow that works for kids, beginners and experts alike. Our crew is experienced and travels for projects anywhere in the country.

CORE CAPABILITIES

- Planning and design: site assessment, phased concept plans, trail and skills park layouts
- Field layout: flagging lines with grade, drainage and flow worked out before digging
- Construction: machine rough in and hand cutting/finish for singletrack, flow, jump and technical trail, bike parks and skills zones
- Maintenance and rehabilitation: drainage fixes, rock armoring, reroutes, feature rebuilds
- Corridor clearing: tree and brush clearing for trail corridors
- Field surveys: trail width, grade and pinch point measurement reports
- Volunteer dig days: leading community crews alongside paid work

PAST PERFORMANCE

- Buzzard Butte Trail System, lead trail builder: flagged and hand built 4 to 5 miles of green through double black singletrack, built advanced features, ran machine work and led volunteer days.
  Pacific City, Oregon. Tillamook Off Road Trail Alliance (TORTA), with the Bros and Hoes trail crew
- Red Bull Rampage, dig crew six times, 2025 Digger's Award; Red Bull Formation, dig crew two times.
  Virgin, Utah. Big mountain freeride lines and features
- Event courses for Tour de Gnar, Freeride Fiesta, Flat Out Days and Loosefest.
- Private jump line, machine construction with a Kubota 40 class mini excavator.
- Spider Mountain Bike Park, trail routing and a flow trail and skills zone concept plan; build planned for 2027.
  Burnet, Texas
- TORTA trail survey: field measurement report on five trails (widths, grades, pinch points).
